

Steinbright Hall

Just a step away!

If you love privacy, but also want to be in the middle of a vibrant community, then you will enjoy living in Steinbright Hall. With all the rooms arranged around a central lounge area, Steinbright offers a friendly and lively gathering place just steps away from the privacy of your room. Although it is tucked away on the southwest end of campus, Steinbright Hall is far from out of the way. The hall is home to the College's state-of-the-art dance facilities, so your dance company rehearsal or movement class is held right downstairs. With athletic fields adjacent to the building, you will have a front row seat to field hockey, soccer, tennis, lacrosse and softball games. Although there is convenient parking directly in front of the building, you won't need a car to get to the stores and restaurants near campus. In fact, with The Shops at Cedar Point directly across the street from Steinbright, you can easily run to the supermarket, pharmacy or restaurant to grab a bite, pick up some essentials or just to take a study break.

Each room features a standard twin bunkable bed, desk, chair, closet and book shelf for each resident, full length mirror, trash can, overhead lighting and blinds/shades for the windows. In addition, the building is air conditioned and a computer lab, laundry room with free washers and dryers, study areas, vending machines and kitchen facilities with refrigerators, microwaves and stove are available. Also, cable and Internet access is available in each room. Wireless internet is also available throughout the building. Community televisions are equipped with cable. Bathroom facilities on each floor are shared.

The dimensions of double rooms are approximately 16'4" x 11'4". Most rooms have two windows with dimensions of 68" by 53". The following rooms have a single window 60" x 53": 114, 128, 201, 214, 215, 228, 301, 314, 328.
