

Prospective F-1 students must demonstrate the financial resources to live and study in the United States. This includes being able to cover the cost of tuition, books, living expenses and travel. Cedar Crest College International Student Services Office collects evidence of the student's financial ability before issuing a Form I-20, "Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant Student Status."

Students must provide documentation for how their educational expenses will be supported in the first year and all succeeding years at Cedar Crest College.

This form contains the following three parts. Please write answers in ink or type.

- Part A: Student Information
- Part B: I-20 Issuance Requirements
- Part C: Source of Funds must be current within 6 months

Appendix

Requirements of all financial documentation:

We can accept the various financial documentation; however, all financial documents must:

- Be easy to read and understand. Bank statements and/or letters should be clear, free from smudges, and easy to understand. If copies are blurry or are not legible, you will be asked you to submit new ones, which will delay your application.
- Must be official. Bank statements should be official and original in PDF format. Do not submit screenshot.
- Be issued within the last 6 months. The print date (not maturation or other dates) of accounts and letters must be within the last 6 months.
- Be in English or have English translations/notation. You must provide translations of documents not in English.
- Have the type of currency listed. The statements must indicate the currency. This can be in letters (e.g. USD, CNY, EUR, SAR) or symbols (e.g. £)
- Contain specific numerical values. Your financial statements and/or bank letters must contain actual numbers. For example, your letter must say, "Our banking client has $70,000 USD in his account." We cannot accept letters that say "Our banking client has sufficient funds to cover Cedar Crest College expenses."

Requirements of International Affidavit of Support:

- Personal/Family Savings: Signatures of sponsor(s) on this form. Bank verification on both this form and in a separate bank statement.
- Scholarship: Official scholarship letter from the institution awarding the scholarship. The award letter must contain the name of the student, the amount of money available for each year of study, the duration of the award (including beginning and ending dates) and the degree and major field of study for the award.
- Government or Employer as Sponsor: Official letter indicating amount of support and containing the same information as for "GOVERNMENT/EMPLOYER/OTHER" described above.
- Loans: Official letter from credit institution indicating approval of the loan and the amount approved.
- Dependent Support: A student who wish to have his/her family member(s) accompany him/her must document additional funding for each family member per calendar year of intended study. Cedar Crest College will provide you with the required spouse/child documentation.

Cedar Crest College reserves the right to require additional financial documentation and/or pre-payment from students whose countries impose currency exchange restrictions or other obstacles to the transfer of currency. Students from such countries will be notified of specific requirements when they have submitted a completed application.
